EagleBank Announces Five-Year Partnership with D.C. United

The Official Bank of D.C. United to Sponsor New Stadium

Bethesda, MD. EagleBank, the largest community bank in the Washington metro region and Major League Soccer club D.C. United are pleased to announce a five-year sponsorship of the team and stadium. As part of the arrangement, EagleBank will be the official bank of D.C. United, providing a series of banking and financial services. The partnership will also include the creation of the "EagleBank Club," at Audi Field which will provide an exclusive destination for team fans and patrons to enjoy premium seating and entertainment right in front of the action.

D.C. United previously obtained a $25-million funding package from EagleBank to install state-of-the-art energy and water efficiency equipment at Audi Field, including a storm water retention system. The measures, built through the D.C. Property Assessed Clean Energy (PACE) program, have put Audi Field at the forefront of green buildings in the District.

"We are delighted to enter into this exciting partnership as D.C. United's official bank and as a founding partner of the new Audi Field," said Ron Paul, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of EagleBank. "As a community business bank, we are proud to work closely with iconic D.C.-based businesses and organizations that enrich the lives of our residents, workforce and visitors from around the world. D.C. United have a robust fan base in the area, and we look forward to a successful partnership that will support this incredibly talented local team."

"We feel honored to grow our relationship with EagleBank both at Audi Field and in the communities we serve," Jason Levien, United CEO and managing general partner, said. "Serving the community is core to our principles and this strategic partnership

About D.C. United and Audi Field

One of the founding clubs of Major League Soccer in 1996, D.C. United are the most decorated team in the United States with 13 domestic and international trophies, and the most championed professional team in the District of Columbia. The Black-and-Red have won the MLS Cup four times (1996, 1997, 1999 and 2004), the Supporters’ Shield four times (1997, 1999, 2006 and 2007) and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup three times (1996, 2008 and 2013). United have called the District home for the past 22 years and will continue that tradition as they move into Audi Field in Southwest D.C. in 2018. The state-of-the-art urban facility has a capacity of 20,000 fans and will feature 31 luxury suites, a bike valet, and 500,000 total square feet of mixed-use retail and residential space on site, making it a 365-day destination for fans and D.C. residents alike.
