EagleBank Appoints Corey Muñoz Chief People Officer

Seasoned executive brings global leadership experience to advance
EagleBank's people strategy and support long-term growth

BETHESDA, MD. EagleBank (NASDAQ: EGBN), one of the largest community banks in the Washington, D.C. region, today announced the appointment of Corey S. Muñoz, Ph.D., as Executive Vice President and Chief People Officer, effective November 16, 2026.

Muñoz will join EagleBank's executive leadership team and report directly to Chief Executive Officer and President Stephen Curley. He will shape the people strategy and develop the leadership and organizational capabilities needed to advance the Bank's strategic plan and support sustainable growth.

"EagleBank's continued success will be shaped by our ability to attract, develop and retain exceptional people," said Stephen Curley, President and Chief Executive Officer of Eagle Bancorp and EagleBank. "Corey brings deep experience transforming complex organizations, strengthening leadership pipelines and aligning talent strategy with business priorities. His appointment reinforces our commitment to developing the leadership and capabilities that will support our growth and advance our strategic plan."

"EagleBank has built a strong franchise and distinctive culture through its people, customer relationships and commitment to the communities it serves," said Muñoz. "I look forward to building on that foundation by developing talent, creating opportunities for employees and supporting the Bank's long-term success."

Executive Background

Most recently, Muñoz served as Global Vice President, People & Organization at Mars, Incorporated, where he led talent development strategies serving more than 140,000 associates across 80-plus countries and expanded organizational capabilities through technology and AI-enabled learning systems.
